

Raising industry standards, one coat at a time.

CONTRACTOR COMPARISON CHECKLIST

There are many variables besides the price that a smart consumer must look at to avoid costly mistakes and frustration.

	VANGUARD PAINTING	Company B	Company C
Does the contractor have a large full-time team of professionally trained painters (NOT SUB-CONTRACTORS)?	YES
Can the contractor provide you with a list of past clients with addresses and detailed references of projects to match specific needs of like size and scope?	YES
Does the contractor carry liability insurance up to $5,000,000.00?	YES
Will the contractor provide you with a clearance letter from WCB, indicating they are covered and in good standing?	YES
Is the contractor listed, complaint free , with the Better Business Bureau?	YES
Can the contractor supply qualified and trained high-angle workers to do bosun's chair, scaffold, swing stage and boom work?	YES
Can the contractor provide in-house full service repairs to wood, stucco and concrete?	YES
Will the contractor provide you with a job-scheduling plan, as well as organize and deliver notices to multi-residential projects?	YES
Will the estimate be scheduled and the bid presented in a timely manner, indicating the company's punctuality, organization and courtesy?	YES
Does the contractor have an Environmental Policy?	YES
Is the contractor able to immediately field and support any size of project?	YES
Does the contractor have an operating facility with equipment storage, warehouse, workshop and complete office of sales and support staff, project managers, estimators, human resources and safety co-ordination?	YES
Is the contractor WHMIS certified, with a level 1 first aid attendant on every site, ensuring jobsite safety and complying with provincial regulations?	YES
Will you be dealt with in a courteous and respectful manner by the contractor's staff from initial contact through to project completion?	YES		